

ISLAND GROVE NUPTIALS.

Marriages of the Misses Cail Occurred Within Few Days of Each Other.

Island Grove, Jan. 11.—Married, at the residence of and by Justice A. Morrison, on January 2nd, 1905, Mr. Chas. Casagne of Baltimore, Ind., and Miss Omera Cail of Island Grove. No cards.

On January 8th, 1905, at the residence of and by Justice A. Morrison, Mr. James G. Mordacal of Savannah, Ga., and Miss Ollie Cail.

The bride was attired in a neat suit of grey merino, with hat and gloves to match, and wore a white silk scarf around her neck and a white sash of ribbon around her waist. The groom was neatly attired in a suit of black and presented a very genteel appearance.

Their friends extend to them their warmest congratulations for their future happiness and success in life, and may they never want for friends should adverse fortune frown, and rejoice with them now as life's vale is strewn with flowers fresh.

Herman Westphal, a prominent young gentleman of Kansas City, has been visiting his brother, A. M. Westphal of Island Grove, and seems charmed with the climate of Florida so much that he is contemplating a return to the State at an early day to make it his home. He has made a pleasant impression upon the people and a warm welcome awaits his return. He made many warm friends at Island Grove who seemed to regret his departure as they gathered at the home to take leave of him.

A Sudden Death.

The death of Mrs. Minnie Purcell, wife of Rev. I. P. Purcell, formerly pastor of the C. M. E. Church in this city, at her home, 702 North Sixth street, removes from our midst one of the most sainted women of the city. Mrs. Purcell's death occurred at 1:15 a. m. Sunday morning, she having had a stroke of paralysis at 10 p. m., only surviving it about three hours. Medical aid was immediately summoned and all that was possible was done, but of no avail.

Mrs. Purcell was a Christian lady and her Christian influence was felt throughout the city. The funeral of the deceased was held at St. Paul C. M. E. Church at 2 p. m. Tuesday, and was attended by a large concourse of relatives and friends. She leaves a husband, four daughters, two sons, one of whom is only seven years old, and a host of friends to mourn her loss. Her funeral was conducted by Rev. J. Chavas, present pastor of the church, aided by most of the colored ministers of the city.

The relatives of the deceased desire to thank their many friends in the city, both white and colored, who have rendered them so much aid and assistance since the death of their beloved wife and mother. A RELATIVE.

Do Not Suppress a Cough.

When you have a cough do not try to suppress it, but remove the cause. The cough is only a symptom of some disease, and that disease is what you should cure, then the cough will stop of itself. The most common cause of coughing is a cold. Anodynes will promptly suppress the cough, and preparations containing chloroform, opium, etc., are used for that purpose, but they do not cure the cold. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy on the other hand does not suppress the cough, but relieves it by removing from the throat and lungs the mucus which obstructs the breathing and allaying the irritation and tickling in the throat. It also opens the secretions and effectually and permanently cures the cold as well as the cough. For sale by all druggists.

Live Stock Men in Session.

Denver, Jan. 11.—With 1,000 delegates in attendance the annual convention of the National Livestock association was called to order today by President Frank S. Hagenbarth. The convention then took up the question of reorganization and was busily engaged with it for several hours. In the afternoon no session of the livestock association was held, the hall being turned over to the National Wool Growers' association, and a meeting of the cattle men on the range question.

Found a Cure for Indigestion.

I use Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets for indigestion and find that they suit my case better than any dyspepsia remedy I have ever tried and I have used many different remedies. I am nearly fifty-one years of age and have suffered a great deal from indigestion. I can eat almost anything I want to now.—Geo. W. Enoxy, Rock Mills, Ala. For sale by all druggists.
